“ I remember, as a kid, my beautiful cousin was such a girly girl. I, on the other hand, was a tomboy and loved critters. One day I asked her to close her eyes and put out her hand then I put an earthworm in her hand, and she almost had a heart attack at the age of seven. She was lucky it wasn't a grass snake. At the age of 10, I didn't understand why she didn't like my gift! I laughed so hard and she never took anything from my hand unless she saw it first. 🤔 She was beautiful inside and out, and I will always cherish her beautiful smile (like mine) and her loving personality. My beloved cousin, you have finished your race, so rest in peace in the loving arms of Jesus, until we meet again in Heaven. You will always be in my ❤️ and thoughts. 🙏🌹😊
